Sukkot, the Lulav, and The Season of Our Rejoicing

by Rabbi Lisa Bock

Ever go into your garden to pull out a nice fresh tomato, zucchini, or other vegetable? Have you experienced that feeling of satisfaction that something so wonderful and nourishing grew in your yard?

Now imagine harvesting an entire field of crops – food that would sustain you and your whole family, and if the harvest hadn't turned out well, hmmm...you wouldn't have Ralphs, Vons or Trader Joes to go to...

I imagine that in ancient times, a harvest was a huge reason for celebration.

As Jews, we connect this miracle of sustenance to the Divine, recognizing that we do work hard, but not everything is in our hands. Today we have sprinkler systems and sprays for bugs, but imagine growing crops in ancient times – and thanking the Divine for rain and a good crop.

On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the yield of your land, you shall observe the festival of the LORD to last seven days (Leviticus 23:39).

Our Torah captures this remembering to celebrate and thank God for the harvest in our calendar. The 15th day of the 7th month is the 15th of Tishrei, which begins at sundown this year on Sunday, September 30th.

So how do we celebrate this?

You shall live in booths seven days; all citizens in Israel shall live in booths (Leviticus 23:42).

Four days after Yom Kippur we begin a week of celebrating in the sukkah. We call this time Sukkot, the festival of booths. You've probably seen the sukkah each year that we put up at the Temple, and we are traditionally each instructed to fulfill the mitzvah of building our own sukkah at home and dwelling in the sukkah at this time of year. And it is a really nice time to dwell in the sukkah as well, since the weather is usually still pretty warm and not yet rainy.

On the first day you shall take the product of hadar trees, branches of palm trees, boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook, and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days. (Leviticus 23:40)

The Lulav is "four species" consisting of the lulav (palm), the etrog (the citrus), the hadas (myrtle), and the arava (willow). Though there are many different interpretations of these four species, one that I like is that each of these four species are symbolic of the variety of people, not unlike the mention of the four sons on Passover, and the four questions. When we hold the lulav, we bring all of these together in our hands, and symbolically they join together as we do the blessing and waving of the lulav.

What is the relevance today, why do we do this now?

The Torah answers:

In order that future generations may know that I made the Israelite people live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I the LORD your God. (Leviticus 23:43)

Perhaps going out and living in booths, even if just for dinner and visiting, causes us to remember how if it weren't for our temperature controlled homes, we might not be so comfortable. We have the opportunity to learn appreciation.

As our text says, it also connects us back to Passover, and to the time that the newly freed Israelites were wandering in the desert and dwelled in booths.

And one more answer...

This time of year is also called Z'man Simchateinu, The Season of Our Rejoicing. We have spent a lot of time in services, we have fasted on Yom Kippur, we have done our best to repent and atone...we now have a clean slate and all new, good intentions and plans for the new year. It is time to celebrate and rejoice together. We can share our stories, our plans, our hopes and our dreams.

Ushpizin – Guests

One final thought...When you dine in your sukkah, it is Jewish tradition to invite guests to dine with you, to dwell in the sukkah with you. What a great time to get together with family and with friends. The relaxed atmosphere of being outside and celebrating-what's not to enjoy?!

• Please join us on September 30th, at 4:00 pm in our side yard garden area, participate in the mitzvah of building/completing our Sukkah, and we will celebrate with shaking the lulav and having dinner together.

We will have lots to do for moms and dads, and lots of decorating to do for kids of all ages, from 2 to 102! The Ner Ami Brotherhood will be hosting the BBQ, so please come and enjoy!

Praise to the Source of Life, for giving us life, for sustaining us, and enabling us to reach this season!

With Blessing

New Year Celebrated in Style!

by Marc Grossmann

It was absolutely wonderful to share the Rosh Hashanah holiday with our Temple Ner Ami community. It's always great to see everyone's smiling faces, and the excitement of having Rabbi Lisa Bock lead the services this year for the first time added to the anticipation. Whether you attended the Sunday evening service or Monday's events, you couldn't help but leave feeling inspired. Many people participated as volunteers and that not only helped get the work done but added to our sense of community. Many thanks to Bobbe and Dale Jacobs and Steve Moore for arranging the beautiful display of apples and honey. Nadine Frankel and Arlene Cohen took care of selecting and arranging the beautiful flowers.

Our ushers and ticket takers were essential in setting the mood of friendliness and included Bobbe Jacobs, Gary and Kathy Lieb, Bonnie Shubb, Barbara Davis, and Richard Ehrlich.

Arla Crane spoke from her heart in a very moving and thoughtful appeal about the importance of supporting our temple and Keith Elliott took on the difficult but fun task of blowing the Shofar. Rabbi Lisa also found a very creative way to avoid the annual schlep to the beach, enabling many people to attend the S'lichot service in the Temple garden for the first time.

The joy of our High Holy Day services also would not be the same without the beautiful voice of Cantor Karen Dworsky who sang from deep in her heart. As you know, she accompanied by a terrific choir, led this year by the very talented Moises Mercado. It was clear that they had devoted a lot of time in rehearsing and that was a gift to all of us. The choir members (from left to right below) were Sharon Spielman, Keith Elliott, Susan Weinstein, Lenny Lowenschuss, Kim Honig, Avram Kohls, Elvira Cabelli, and Arlene Cohen.

Special thanks too, to our staff, Mark Malloy and Kaila Kadin, for their behind the scenes help with all the extra work the High Holidays require.

We hope everyone has a sweet, healthy, and Happy New Year.

President's Report

Keith Elliott

This month, our Temple President Dan Harris informed us that it was not appropriate for him to continue serving TNA in that capacity, and our primary concern is that we do everything possible to support Dan and his family as fellow members. The Board of Directors has accepted his resignation, and chosen me to replace him as President. Dan has been President through some extremely challenging times, and we owe him a great deal.

This is a very special time to take on such a challenge, such a responsibility, and such an honor. As we move into our first year with Rabbi Lisa Bock, we are faced with tremendous potential for our future as a synagogue-as a house of worship, a house of study, and a focal point for our community. I think it's somehow special that this new beginning comes during our 20th anniversary. The very earliest traces of any synagogues anywhere are from roughly 1900 years ago. There were probably others several hundred years earlier, as it is known that Rabbi Yohanan ben Zakai promoted the idea during the Second Temple era of Jews congregating where they lived, not just at the Temple in Jerusalem. Those early houses of study became far more important after the loss of the Temple, when Judaism was becoming the combination of faith and practice that we know today. Temple Ner Ami's 20-year span is barely more than one percent of that period of time.

It is hard to imagine the challenges Jews faced in those first years and centuries, not only reinterpreting and reevaluating the practices they had followed for so long, but remaining together in Jewish communities throughout the diaspora. For the Rabbis and Sages, there was work aplenty; there was a Talmud to write, after all! For everyone else, the challenge was more difficult in a sense. They needed to remain Jewish in the midst of many "foreign" cultures.

This was done by focusing on their local Jewish community, which was centered around a synagogue, beyt kneset, beyt t'filla, shul, or whatever the building was referred to. Soon, Jewish life itself became definable by this arrangement. Without it, there is little doubt that Judaism would have dwindled to nothing in a few decades, if not less. How often were leaders faced with decisions and challenges then that would determine the survival of their synagogue and community? Did they know that their decisions would affect lives thousands of years later? The existence of the Talmud proves to me that they understood the nature of the challenge.

In the two thousand years since, how often we have had to rely on the anchor of our synagogues, and the leadership of our Rabbis, in a world that at times was hostile. There have been periods where the hostility was reduced, and we experienced "golden ages", still led by the same Rabbis, who ensured that prosperity and assimilation did not allow us to disappear from the Earth. It would be easy to argue that three things have allowed us to survive-the Torah, the Rabbis, and the Synagogues; our books, our leaders, and our home. They make a three-legged stool, a thing that cannot stand without every leg present and accounted for.

So here we are, occupying the last one percent of that historical timeline. As small as twenty years may seem in comparison, the history of TNA cannot be viewed on its own. It is a part of that history, a part of that two thousand years, which is in turn a part of our overall story from Abraham and Sarah to today. I am very much aware of the fact that every decision we make affects not only the next service or special event we are working on-it affects our future, and the future of our children, and their children, and all Jews. What we do today affects the next year; the next five years; and the next thousand. I find it very sobering to reflect on this, but that is our burden AND our blessing-to be a part of a four thousand year history, and to ensure that that history continues.

I have been very lucky to have gotten to know so many members of our community so much better over the last year, and I know I will get to know many more in the months to come. It's a privilege and honor to be allowed to serve my community in this way, and I want everyone to have the chance to share that honor with me. It is a thrill to think that we might share in the legacy of those that preserved our traditions for so many centuries. Remember, what we do here, at our little shul in a town that most people in this country will never hear of makes a difference in the future. How far in the future depends on us.

This year's event is going to be BIGGER and even MORE GRAND than last years. It is at the Aviation Museum at the Camarillo Airport and a venue that I'm sure everyone will enjoy just from it's own awesomeness. Since the venue is much larger than last years, we will have more tables and chairs along with more gaming tables to help accommodate everyone's fun and comfort.

The party will be right in the middle of all of those nostalgic WWII planes, with all of their own personal history. If you have never been there, it's pretty incredible, which is why we are opening the doors a little earlier than last year so you have some extra time to check out the planes and museum and take pictures if you like. Doors will open at 6:30 and the gaming will start at 7.

This year we will have the addition of a LIVE AUCTION! We were fortunate enough to have received a generous donation from a good friend of mine. She was gracious enough to get us an autographed guitar from the Grammy Award winning, front man and guitarist of MAROON 5 and one of the coaches on the hit tv show "THE VOICE"'s ADAM LEVINE. That is a pretty incredible donation for our auction, THANK YOU JULEE! WE will also auction off a plane ride in one of the WW II planes that you see there, so you can get to feel some of what those brave pilots felt when flying their missions.

As far as OY VEYGAS casino raffle prizes we have some awesome prizes already and we are not done yet. We have a GENUINE 110 RATTLER SCOOTER which would make for a great, inexpensive(70-90mpg) around town or a college kids mode of transportation. It also comes with a two year warranty and two years of roadside assistance and a brand new helmet. This is a value of $2,700!!

For all you techies out there, we have a new 3rd GENERATION WI-FI 64 GB IPAD. I don't think that I need to explain anything more about this one. That is a $750 value. Also for the younger crowd or the young at heart, we have a BG BRAND BOSS FLEX LONG BOARD SKATE BOARD with custom graphics. This is also a great mode of transportation for a college kid, it's my son Jacobs favorite way to get around at school.

Rabbi Lisa and Ken have very generously made a few donations, one being a dinner at their home for two to four couples for an evening of great food and even better conversation. They are also donating a women's TREK street bike that is not brand new but has been Blessed by Rabbi Lisa riding it just a couple of times, valued somewhere between $500 and priceless. How about a basket of Rabbi Lisa's favorite wines and favorite chocolates? It could be yours!!

Do you love to fish or love the ocean? You could be the winner of a charter boat trip aboard the M/V ISLAND SPIRIT out of Ventura Harbors VENTURA SPORTFISHING LANDING, thanks to Capt. Greg Ewart. You could take out about 40 people on a whale watching trip for the day or invite about 20 of your friends for some of the great fishing around the Channel Islands or the coast.

We will have lots of other great prizes for you to win as either a silent auction or raffle prize. Keep watching your email for prize updates as we get closer.

We will feed you well as we did last year. We will have some appetizers that will be followed by a buffet style dinner of charbroiled salmon and chicken along with veggies and salad. You will get a complimentary drink ticket for a cocktail at the bar and then the rest are $4 each. Bottled water and soda are complimentary. For the gaming you get $1000 of Chutzpah cash as well with your paid admission.

If you run out of Chutzpah cash while you're gaming, you can buy more at $10 for $1000 of Chutzpah. At the end of the night you trade in your thousands of dollars(hopefully) of Chutzpah cash for raffle tickets. You get 4 raffle tickets for every $1000 of Chutzpah. If you are out of Chutzpah cash at the end of the night or you just want to buy more raffle tickets they are 4 tickets for $10 (real money).

The gaming tables open at 7pm and close at 10pm at which time you put your raffle tickets in the box for whatever prizes you want to win if you haven't already. We will have the live auction around 10:15 and as soon as that is done, we will start picking the raffle winners.

The silent auction will be open at 6:30pm and will close at 9pm at which time the winners will be notified by our announcer. Please bring your check book, credit card or cash to pay for all live auction and silent auction prizes, all of which must be paid for at event.

There will also be a couple of raffles with your entry ticket so please fill out the contact info on back so we know who's ticket it is. Please fill that out before you come so that it doesn't slow down the entry process.

This is not only our biggest fundraiser of the year but for you and your friends, it's a great night out that you will fondly remember next year when it happens again. You don't need to be Jewish to have a great time at OY VEYGAS!! Heck, the only Jews that I know are my friends right here at Temple Ner Ami. So, all my friends outside the temple are goyim, and they all had such a great time last year that they are inviting friends of theirs. THIS IS THE KEY TO MAKING THIS A GREAT NIGHT FOR YOU AND A PROFITABLE NIGHT FOR OUR TEMPLE.....INVITE YOUR FRIENDS, JEWISH OR NOT, THE MORE THE MERRIER!!!!

I hope to see YOU there!

November Open House Sponsorship

If you attended our last Open House and Kabbalat Shabbat, you know firsthand that it was great to gather with fellow congregants in a fun atmosphere and get to know each other a little better prior to services. We also got to meet some new faces and welcome them into our temple family. It is a time to bring our community together and also open our doors to encourage new membership.

Conducting an Open House is no small feat. From publicity and mailings to food to nosh on, we could use your assistance in making our Open Houses and Kabbalat Shabbat a success. Sponsorship of our next open house, which is on Friday, November 30, is now available at a contribution amount of $750.

Please contact the temple office for more details on sponsorship of this event.

TODAH RABBAH - Means Thank You!

Message from Naomi Brill, Oneg Chair

Dear Members: I am excited and so pleased to report to you that my plea for help has been answered!

Please note that JOSEPHINE FREIFELD (she's below the challah) will now be the new Oneg chair with ARLA CRANE and myself (NAOMI BRILL) assisting her. We on this Oneg Committee feel that everyone in the Temple should take at least one turn a year to help with our Onegs. It is the perfect way to honor someone for a happy occasion or to remember a dear one who is no longer with us. If you do not call ARLA CRANE to volunteer to be a sponsor, then please expect a call from her to invite you to do so.

THANK YOU to the following members who were sponsors during the month of August:

- DIANE and JOHN ENSEY in honor of their son, Jack's, Bar Mitzvah.
- MAX and JOSEPHINE FREIFELD in memory of Max's father, JOSHUA FREIFELD.
- MAX and JOSEPHINE FREIFELD in memor of Josephine's former husband, MATHEW ANSELMO.

The sponsors who served on September 7 were:

BOBBE JACOBS, PHYLLIS ZIMMERMAN and ELAINE JAFFE all of whom were celebrating their respective birthdays. As an added incentive to celebrate your birthday at our Temple, you will be given a balloon with your name on it! ONLY our Temple gives this added perk!

Just to remind you in case you are new to the Temple, the Onegs are the social hour we offer after every Friday night's service - a time to socialize and enjoy some challah and dessert.

Please call ARLA CRANE at 987-2000 to avail yourselves of this opportunity to meet new people and help our Temple at the same time.

Your Oneg Committee:

JOSEPHINE FREIFELD, Oneg Chair,
ARLA CRANE, Chair of Volunteer Sponsors, and NAOMI BRILL, Editor.

Don't forget to thank the Brotherhood for our new Sukkah, the meal, and refreshments!

Here's your chance to dance with the Torah! We will complete our reading of the Torah and begin anew on Friday the 12th of October. We make this a big event each year. It is an opportunity for everyone to see the Torah up close. Service starts at the regular time, 7:30 pm.

MOVIE NIGHT

Annie Hall: Best Picture 1977

Saturday - October 27th, 6:30 pm

This endlessly funny, timeless and charming film runs the gamut from life in New York, to Jewish family life, to Jewish-gentile relations, to the meaning of love. Woody Allen's cultural references are very New York, very Jewish.

Diane Keaton deservedly won an Academy Award for her performance, Allen took home Oscars for direction and writing, and the film beat out "Star Wars" for Best Picture. Some reviewers have called this one of the best movies ever made, partly due to the perfect balance between sheer entertainment, humor, poignancy and social commentary.

"What does this movie say to you?" Discussion afterwards led by Shlomo Kreitzer.

(Support) Mark Malloy ~ our community leader

by Shari Brody

We know our Temple administrator, Mark Malloy, as the constant face who seems to spend 12 hours a day, seven days a week at the Temple. In addition to being very capable, friendly, efficient and excellent at his work, he does find the time to do other things!

funding to be used in other important areas in our community.

Mark's interest in youth sports started years ago when his sons were playing AYSO Soccer and continued as a soccer referee. He became involved in the Camarillo Pony Baseball Association from 1985 through 2003. Mark was President of the Association as well as an umpire for many years until health issues dictated that he retire.

Mark was born in Portland, Oregon, is a graduate of California State University at Long Beach, and has been married to "the girl of his dreams", Kathleen for 35 years. They have two sons and three grandchildren.

Cars have been a long time love of Mark's, and he enjoys tinkering with his Mustang Bullitt GT.

Mark has served on the Board of Directors of the Pleasant Valley Park & Recreation Department for the past six years. In 2006, he was appointed to the Board to fill a vacancy and then was elected to a four year term. He is coming up for reelection next month (Nov. 6th) and hopes to continue working on the Board for another four years. Mark's philosophy is one of involvement. When he sees a problem or a need, he can't say "no" when asked to help!

He worked in several management positions in the auto industry, but his career changed at the start of the personal computer revolution. He did some innovative work with mail order sales of personal computer enhancement products. He worked in publishing for PC Magazine and Windows Magazine, followed by a position as Director of Marketing for Airlessco, a local manufacturer of paint spraying equipment.

He has been a member of the Camarillo Church of Christ for years and after volunteering many hours a week at the church, he retired from the business world and became their administrator/gardener/fix-it man, four years ago.

Mark Malloy is vital to the needs of the church and temple. His workaholic personality and desire to make constant improvement is making each year better than the last, has benefited our Temple greatly! Putting his spare time and effort into helping to improve the Camarillo community by serving on the Board of the Pleasant Valley Recreation & Parks District is admirable! A huge thank you, Mark for all that you do!

- Shari Brody

Mark feels that the PVRPD Board is avoiding making difficult decisions that will affect the district for years to come. This involves changing the fringe benefit program that is offered to the 35 full-time employees of the district. Each receive a fully paid health care package for themselves and their families that can cost over $19,000 per employee. His thinking is that this was set up years ago when health insurance was inexpensive and more money was coming in. At this time, each employee should share the cost of the health, vision and dental package for the employee and their family. This major expense is limiting the some of the other vital needs in the community such as expansion of the Senior Center and completion of the boys baseball park. No one wants to be a "bad" guy but sharing the costs of the Park & Recreation fringe benefit package would go a provide

Member Spotlight! - Sharron Parker

by Barbara Davis

Some of you may know her as the woman who sells Leisure Village but there is more to Sharron Parker than being our resident real estate professional. Sharron grew up in Connecticut and New Jersey; in fact, the Garden State is where she went to high school. After graduating, she worked in advertising for CBS in New York City.

Sharron has had three successful businesses in her career including interior decorating, insurance sales and real estate. Enjoying time with her three children and four grandchildren who range in ages from six to eighteen is always a joy for her and it helps that they live closeby - both in Newbury Park and in San Francisco. Her eighteen year old granddaughter just started college at the University of Southern California and as we would expect from any proud grandparent, Sharron is very excited and happy for her.

In her free time, Sharron participates in a movie group that meets twice a month for viewing and socialization following the show. One of the most important things to Sharron is maintaining good health by enjoying evening walks and nurturing relationships. Additionally, Sharron is a member of ORT, Hadassah and City of Hope; all of which she has served as President. Additionally she service as the President of the National Council of Jewish Women before the local section closed its doors.

When asked what she enjoys most about being a member of Temple Ner Ami, Sharron states that it is the warmth and caring of the community that she cherishes the most.
